

how do we know these cars are not stolen from some other location. i seriously question this back door import of cars from some other country and find it questionable. i therefore oppose these back door permits. errors can be made in recalibration. especially lowering mileage. i do not favor this kind of car selling.